The Newport Public Library is located near Easton Beach and the carousel, shopping on Thames Street, the scenic Cliff Walk, Kingscote Mansion (open to tour for admission) and the Edward King Senior Center- which was once a private estate and the former home of the Newport Public Library. The library is located in beautiful Aquidneck Park. If you are driving to the library, check our web site at www.newportlibraryri.org for driving directions. Parking is on Spring St. or in the parking lot behind the library off Golden Hill Ave.

Enter the library on the Golden Hill Ave. side near the parking lot.

Pass through both sets of automatic doors.

Walk eight paces to the elevator or 6 paces to the stairs.

Enter the main floor of the library by pressing L on the elevator or by climbing up 7 stairs.

Say hello to the staff at the Circulation Desk on your right.

Locate the Children's Area sign on top of a book case

5 paces from the Circulation Desk.

Walk 17 paces from the sign, past the Children's Internet computers and Children's Magazines to the Children's Point House Reading Rooms. These child-sized houses were modeled after real historic homes from the Point in Newport.

Walk 7 paces to the library computer catalog in the wooden carrel at the end of the Children's Internet computers and directly across from the Children's Desk, wave to the children's staff.

Walk 9 paces towards the center of the Children's area until you are directly under the skylight and a large silk kite of a bird.

Walk 7 paces to the potted plant on top of the low bookcase. Look on the middle shelf under the potted plant for J REF 909 STA. Open up the book titled The Stamp of Success.
